"The Sesquicentennial: Cultivating 150 Years of History in Marshall"

"To give you a better idea how big a book that is, there are 1,175 stories, 172 photos, and 4 original sketches, not including pictures in ads. With more than 300 pages of news stories and a 15-page introduction, this book has more than 320,000 words. That's more words than The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, Sense and Sensibility and Treasure Island... combined."
